

6516209277.txt

XM Radio provides information that I cannot always get from "regular" radio. I feel that the NAB has no right to try to limit this information that is available to me. Instead of trying to compete they are trying to limit competition which is inherently unfair and against the principles of competition on which our economy depends. Please reject NAB's petition 04-160.